SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. General Dragalina, said to be the leader of a Rumanian anti-Government band, is reportedly "spreading panic" among Communist circles in Rumania. His partisans were joined recently by 38 Mountain Artillery. The partisans are said to be well stocked with German war materiel which had been hidden in the mountains previously. The Rumanians allegedly have requested aid in the form of troops from the Soviet Union to help quell the activity; some troops are said to have already arrived from the USSR.
2. At the end of October a group of Soviet infantry and Rumanian militia was attacked by Rumanian guerrillas while passing through the Lainici (?) pass near the Tiul River in the Gorj district. The guerrillas allegedly captured the materiel of the Militia and Soviet infantry when the latter retreated.
